

Annual Report on Free Expression

As an institution of higher education, Tulsa Community College embraces and encourages the sharing of knowledge and ideas through public discourse and free speech.

Combining campus life with academic excellence, TCC prepares students for further study or rewarding careers. With four fully equipped campuses in the Tulsa metropolitan area and additional satellite locations, TCC serves more than 24,000 students annually and empowers its community through accessible, quality education.

Civil discourse is fundamental to our mission and values as an institution. It promotes belonging, lifelong learning, and community engagement. Free speech is essential to education and building a successful, informed society.

TCC is pleased to submit this annual report to the Oklahoma Legislature and Governor Kevin Stitt.

Leigh B. Goodson, Ph.D.

TCC President & Chief Executive Officer

Pursuant to 70 O.S. § 2120, Tulsa Community College (TCC) maintains its Facilities Use policy in compliance with state law. Information about the use of space, including the revised policy addressing unscheduled outdoor events, can be found online at www.tulsacc.edu/facilities-use-and-leasing.

TCC has developed comprehensive training materials and trains supervisors, campus leadership at all four campuses, and campus law enforcement regarding free expression.

TCC reports no barriers, incidents, or disruptions of free expression occurring on campus during this reporting period.
