

Community Resources

This is a collection of Northeast Oklahoma community resources designed to give TCC students support to be successful. While this list is not exhaustive, we have made every effort to include many services in Tulsa County and surrounding areas.

This list of resources may be used by any person but was specifically created for victims of civil rights violations and/or interpersonal violence.

These links are being provided as a convenience and for informational purposes only; they do not constitute an endorsement or an approval by Tulsa Community College. TCC bears no responsibility for the accuracy, legality or content of the external site or for that of subsequent links.

The Child Care Resource Center (CCRC) is a program of the Community Service Council (CSC) offering quality child care resource and referral services to families, child care providers and the community. We employ a staff of child care professionals with expertise in child development, early childhood, nutrition, nursing, social work and more. CCRC was formed in 1987 in response to a citizen-led task force examining the needs of Tulsa's children.
